

Product Features

- Due to the film's capability, even if the CMYK injection amount is up to 60%, the color development is good, and there is no reflection. Even if the white ink amount is reduced to 30%, it does not affect color development. This helps reduce costs through less ink consumption.
- If less ink is applied, the step difference between the fabric and the ink is small, so the touch will be better.